Good morning,

Please see the attached preliminary structural detail and architectural plan set for everyone to review. We are just waiting on the structural and electrical engineering to be finalized, and the plan is to have a submittal set over to plan review by Tuesday 07/07/2026. Let me know if any changes need to be made by Wednesday, 07/01/2026 next week.

Thanks, and have a great weekend everyone!

Gents,

Good Morning!

The update on the gate project is that we have the architect moving forward on the construction plans and docs. We will also get the exit gate in our schedule for fabrication over the next few weeks . That way we will be a little ahead of things as the plans and plan review are taking place. Have a great weekend and I'll be in touch as things progress!
